

Christopher Phillip Marriott

Mobile: 07528329448; E-mail: christopher.marriott0@gmail.com

Profile

Always looking for new challenges and new opportunities. A clear communicator who can lead as well as listen and make difficult decisions. Enjoys trying new things and will ask for help when it is needed, as well as provide help where needed. A keen learner interested in a wide range of topics.

Skills

- Java, C, Python, Bash, Assembly, Perl, HTML, Javascript, GitHub and LaTeX
- Linux and Windows
- Quick learner
- Adaptive

Employment History

08/2013 – 08/2014 IBM - Software Development Intern

- Installation and migration testing
- Teaching
- Team leading
- Team member training
- Educational activity development

04/2009 – 06/2011 Radio Shack, Hinckley – Sales Assistant

- Created and Maintained Database for orders and repairs
- Train staff members
- Advised on companies website

14/10/2008 for two weeks Leicester University – Data Input

- Entering data into an Access database
- Interpreting written data

11/2006 – 06/2008 John Cleveland College – Assistant Technician

- Examining computer labs for damaged or missing equipment
- Reporting problems back to the Head of ICT
- Fixing and replacing items

Education

2011 – 2015: Aberystwyth University

Computer Science 4 year (G401)

Expected Outcome 2:1

Key Module: CS31310 Agile Methodologies

2003 – 2008: John Cleveland College

A Levels: Computing
 Psychology

AS Levels: Physics

GCSE Levels: English
 Mathematics
 Science
 Computing
 German

Extra Curricular activities

- Ballroom & Latin dancing
- Electronics
- Demonstrating
- Fencing
- Creative writing
- SSCC Representative

References

Bernie Tiddeman, Room B48, Department of Computer Science, Llandinam Building, Aberystwyth University, Aberystwyth, Ceredigion, SY23 3DB, bpt@aber.ac.uk, +44 (0)1970 621777

Chris Howells, Owner, RadioShack, 81 Castle Street, Hinckley, Leicestershire, LE10 1DA, (01455) 230808